Where to drink and dine on your days off.

It's finally Friday, which means it's almost time to clock-off and get those weekend vibes started. No plans yet? No problem! Eater's here with a handy set of recommendations to assist in your dining destination decision-making. In this regular feature, we'll help you discover recently opened restaurants and uncover new-to-you bars and eateries (plus occasional menu debuts) specializing in everything from Friday happy hour cocktails through to Sunday brunch, so you can make the most of that well-earned downtime.

Pizza & Beer: Flour & Barley

New York-style pizza and craft beer is the name of the game at this Vegas transplant, which recently opened doors at The Headquarters. Chef de cuisine JC Colón oversees the menu that, in addition to a wide selection of brick oven pizzas, also comprises assorted apps, salads and entrees like pork belly carbonara and whole roasted branzino. For ale alternatives, think signature and barrel-aged cocktails, plus wine and housemade sodas. 789 W. Harbor Drive (619) 344-2900 Photo: [Courtesy]
