

Vegas Seven

July 21, 2016

Best Place to Go on a First Date with a Local

BEST PLACE FOR A
FIRST DATE WITH A LOCAL

The Barrymore

Whether you Tinder, OkCupid or just pray there are still Plenty of Fish in the Valley, you need a spot for that critical first encounter. You need glamorous lighting. You need liquid courage. And—let's face it—you need a modicum of anonymity just in case your date takes a turn for the dreadful. You need the Barrymore by Block 16, tucked away in the Royal Resort, with classic cocktails and cuisine by chef Anthony Meidenbauer to fortify you, a swanky old Hollywood design to set the scene for romance and a hot industry night in the event that you need to trade up. For industry locals, most food is 50 percent off on Mondays, and most wines are 50 percent off on Wednesdays (5-10 p.m., must show Southern Nevada Health Card or employment ID). Putting the more in the Barrymore, the 50 Under $50 wine list sweetens the deal no matter where your date night takes you. 99 Convention Center Dr., 702-407-5303, BarrymoreLV.com.

